2       1.     In connection with discovery proceedings in this action, the parties may 3 designate any document, thing, material, testimony or other information derived
4 therefrom, as “Confidential” under the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order 5 (hereinafter “Order”). Confidential information is information which has not been 6 made public and which concerns or relates to the processes, operations, type or work,
7 or apparatus, or to the production, sales, shipments, purchases, transfers, identification 8 of customers, inventories, amount or source of any income, profits, losses, or 9 expenditures of any persons, firm, partnership, corporation, or other organization, the 10 disclosure of which information may have the effect of causing harm to the 11 competitive position of the person, firm, partnership, corporation, or to the 12 organization from which the information was obtained.

13       2.     By designating a document, thing, material, testimony or other information 14 derived therefrom as “confidential,” under the terms of this order, the party making the 15 designation is certifying to the court that there is a good faith basis both in law and in fact 16 for the designation within the meaning of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(g).
17 Confidential documents shall be so designated by stamping copies of the document produced
18 to a party with the legend “CONFIDENTIAL.” Stamping the legend “CONFIDENTIAL” on 19 the cover of any multipage document shall designate all pages of the document as 20 confidential, unless otherwise indicated by the producing party. Testimony taken at a 21 deposition, conference, hearing or trial may be designated as confidential by making a
22 statement to that effect on the record at the deposition or other proceeding. Arrangements
23 shall be made with the court reporter taking and transcribing such proceeding to separately
26

1 bind such portions of the transcript containing information designated as confidential, and 2 to label such portions appropriately.

3 3. Material designated as confidential under this Order, the information contained 4 therein, and any summaries, copies, abstracts, or other documents derived in whole or in part
5 from material designated as confidential (hereinafter “Confidential Material”) shall be used 6 only for the purpose of the prosecution, defense, or settlement of this action, and for no other 7 purpose.

8 4. Confidential Material produced pursuant to this Order may be disclosed or 9 made available only to the Court, to counsel for a party (including the paralegal, clerical, and 10 secretarial staff employed by such counsel), and to the “qualified persons” designated below:

- 11 a. A party, or an officer, director, or employee of a party deemed necessary by 12 counsel to aid in the prosecution, defense, or settlement of this action; 13 b. Experts or consultants (together with their clerical staff) retained by such 14 counsel to assist in the prosecution, defense, or settlement of this action;
15 c. Court reporter(s) employed in this action;
16 d. A witness at any deposition or other proceeding in this action; and 17 e. Any other person as to whom the parties in writing agree.

18 5. Prior to receiving any Confidential Material, each “qualified person” shall 19 be provided with a copy of this Order and shall execute a nondisclosure agreement in the 20 form of Attachment A, a copy of which shall be provided forthwith to counsel for each other 21 party and for the parties.

22 6. Depositions shall be taken only in the presence of qualified persons.

23 7. The parties may further designate certain discovery material or testimony of 24 a highly confidential and/or proprietary nature as “CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEY’S

1 EYES ONLY” (hereinafter “Attorney’s Eyes Only Material”), in the manner described in 2 paragraphs 2 and 3 above. Attorney’s Eyes Only Material, and the information contained
3 therein, shall be disclosed only to the Court, to counsel for the parties (including the 4 paralegal, clerical, and secretarial staff employed by such counsel), and to the “qualified 5 persons” listed in subparagraphs 4(b) through (e) above, but shall not be disclosed to a party, 6 or to an officer, director or employee of a party, unless otherwise agreed or ordered. If 7 disclosure of Attorney’s Eyes Only Material is made pursuant to this paragraph, all other 8 provisions in this order with respect to confidentiality shall also apply.

9 8. Nothing herein shall impose any restrictions on the use or disclosure by a party 10 of material obtained by such party independent of discovery in this action, whether or not 11 such material is also obtained through discovery in this action, or from disclosing its own 12 Confidential Material as it deems appropriate.

13 9. If Confidential Material, including any portion of a deposition transcript 14 designated as Confidential or Attorney’s Eyes Only, is included in any papers to be filed in 15 Court, such papers shall be labeled “Confidential—Subject to Court Order” and filed under 16 seal until further order of this Court.

17 10. In the event that any Confidential Material is used in any court proceeding in 18 this action, it shall not lose its confidential status through such use, and the party using such 19 shall take all reasonable steps to maintain its confidentiality during such use.

20 11. This Order shall be without prejudice to the right of the parties (i) to bring 21 before the Court at any time the question of whether any particular document or information
22 is confidential or whether its use should be restricted or (ii) to present a motion to the Court
23 under FRCP 26(c) for a separate protective order as to any particular document or 24 information, including restrictions differing from those as specified herein. This Order shall

1 not be deemed to prejudice the parties in any way in any future application for modification
2 of this Order.

3 12. This Order is entered solely for the purpose of facilitating the exchange of 4 documents and information between the parties to this action without involving the Court
5 unnecessarily in the process. Nothing in this Order nor the production of any information
6 or document under the terms of this Order nor any proceedings pursuant to this Order shall 7 be deemed to have the effect of an admission or waiver by either party or of altering the 8 confidentiality or non-confidentiality of any such document or information or altering any 9 existing obligation of any party or the absence thereof. This Order shall survive the final 10 termination of this action, to the extent that the information contained in Confidential
11 Material is not or does not become known to the public, and the Court shall retain jurisdiction
12 to resolve any dispute concerning the use of information disclosed hereunder. Upon 13 termination of this case, counsel for the parties shall assemble and return to each other all 14 documents, material and deposition transcripts designated as confidential and all copies of 15 same, or shall certify the destruction thereof.
